

STANDS

The stand has been designed to facilitate the installation of the Crystal wall-mounted boilers. The construction of the stand enables its quick assembly (using the attached sets of mounting screws) at the final installation site. The system of holes allows for precise adjustment of the boiler height. The stands can be connected in series while maintaining the appropriate chimney spacing (using an additional set of screws and sheets). The frame is available in graphite color.

parameters

Value